HOA NEWS

The annual HOA Ice Cream Social that took place on June 23rd was a great success. We had a good turnout and everyone enjoyed eating ice cream and socializing with their neighbors. Thank you to everyone that showed up and helped make this event a success. Special thanks goes to Amber Perry of the HOA Social Committee for putting this event together and making sure everyone had plenty of yummy frozen treats to enjoy.

Outside of some early summer hail storms, things have been fairly quiet in the neighborhood. Rattlesnake bites have been reported in Ute Valley Park so be careful when walking the trails. There've also been mountain lion and bear sightings in the park and surrounding neighborhoods. Keep an eye out when walking/jogging in and around the neighborhood, especially at dawn and dusk. Crime is low in our neighborhood but leaving a car unlocked in your driveway is asking for trouble. Park vehicles in your garage or make sure it's locked if you leave it in the driveway. Our Neighborhood Watch chairperson, Sue Roth, is still looking for volunteers. Please contact her at sktrothco@comcast.net if you're interested in participating in the Neighborhood Watch.
